
Pubcast: Secfault - Web Application (in)Security

Tuesday, 16 February 2010

Matt and Ralfe discuss web application security, insult people and for the most part make a complete hash of everything that is possible to make a hash of. And we're not talking about hashing algorithms.

Web application security is a hot topic these days. Matt and Ralfe discuss the ins and outs of application security. From tools of the trade to where there are fundamental issues. Nothing is safe.
