

Scamto - Homecoming

Friday, 30 April 2010

Each South African that goes overseas loses this country jobs and skills. Often people also find that the world overseas is not as rosy as they imagined.

Cognisant of the problem, South African organisations are stepping up to the plate to not only persuade South Africans to return, but to also assist them to do so.

The head of the Come Home Campaign Alana Bailey and Martine Schaffer, the Homecoming Revolution managing director came to the studio to give us their insights into how we bring people home.
