

Pubcast: From the 2010 ITWeb Security Summit - Charities and models

Thursday, 13 May 2010

Dominic White popped into the Pubcast Studio at the ITWeb security Summit, beers in hand, to discuss Hackers for Charity, and the delicate art of Threat modelling

Threat modelling is a structured way to identify threats, prioritise risk and determine the best way to secure systems. Dominic White presented on the topic at the ITWeb security Summit, and gave us his thoughts on the topic.
