

Pubcast: ITWeb Security Summit 2012 - Fire-Eye: a new approach

Sunday, 27 May 2012

On the official Fire-Eye website, they claim that "the Fire-Eye Malware Protection System fills the security holes left wide open by next-generation firewalls, IPS, gateways, and AV."

Ray Kafity, the Fire-Eye Regional Sales Director for Middle East and Africa was at the 2012 ITWeb Security Summit to introduce the technology, and came into the Pubcast booth to discuss it.
