

After-Dinner - Face your own Everest

Friday, 30 August 2013

I was privileged enough to see - and record - Alex Harris talking at the recent ISACA conference.

I found his talk inspirational, and he was gracious enough to grant me permission to publish it. Listening to it again as I edited the recording, I relived the experience - I would encourage any organisation looking for an interesting speaker to approach him.

Alex - thank you again for allowing me to use this content.

Alex can be contacted at alex@alexharris.co.za

His website is at www.alexharris.co.za
